SUPERIOR COURT RULES, 1932

RULE 58

(Applicable to civil jury cases except in Suffolk)

TRIAL LISTS WITH JURY IN COUNTIES OTHER THAN SUFFOLK

In counties other than Suffolk, for each year beginning the first Monday of September a jury trial lists for each shire town shall be made.

The list shall be composed of cases placed thereon by order of court or marked for trial by a writing given to the clerk not later than the first day of August preceding. Said list need not be printed or prepared for distribution except to such extent as may be deemed proper by the clerk or ordered by the court.

Cases may be added to the list, at the end thereof, at any time by order of court or on the first Monday of any month by written agreement of all parties interested or seven days notice to all parties interested and the filing with the clerk of an affidavit thereof.

The clerk shall make an adequate short list of cases for the first day of any session, and at least four days before that day shall have such short list ready for inspection and shall mail a copy thereof to all counsel of record in the cases thereon; but failure to receive such list shall not be a sufficient excuse for ignorance that a case appears thereon.

When separate sessions for or including civil jury business are held simultaneously in the same shire town, the list, assignment of cases and other administrative matters shall be subject to the direction of such justice as the chief justice may designate.

Cases on one jury trial list shall not have precedence over, or be carried over to, a succeeding annual list, unless the court shall otherwise order.

RULE 60

(Applicable to civil cases without jury except in Suffolk)

TRIAL LISTS WITHOUT JURY IN COUNTIES OTHER THAN SUFFOLK

In counties other than Suffolk, for each session for or including civil business without jury a list of cases for trial or hearing on the merits without jury shall be made; but only one list shall be made for several sessions held simultaneously in the same shire town, and in such case the list, assignment of cases and other administrative matters shall be subject to the direction of such justice as the chief justice may designate. The list shall be composed of cases placed thereon by order of court or marked for trial by a writing given to the clerk at least twenty-one days before the beginning of the session, and shall be ready for inspection at least seven days before the beginning of the session.

Cases may be added to the list by order of court at any time or by written agreement of all parties interested given to the clerk not later than the second day preceding the beginning of the session, and shall be placed at the end of the list unless the court shall otherwise order.

The clerk shall make an adequate short list of cases for the first day of the session, and at least four days before that day shall have such short list ready for inspection and shall mail a copy thereof to all counsel of record in the cases thereon; but failure to receive such list shall not be a sufficient excuse for ignorance that a case appears thereon.

Equity cases, in counties having separate equity dockets, and divorce cases shall be segregated on the list and taken up at such times as the court may order.

Cases on one list for trial or hearing shall not have precedence over, or be carried over to, a succeeding list, unless the court shall otherwise order.

RULE 62

(Applicable to civil jury cases in Suffolk)

TRIAL LISTS WITH JURY IN SUFFOLK

In Suffolk there shall be made for each year beginning the first Monday of September, a general jury trial list, and for each month except August a special jury trial list of cases within G. L. c. 212 § 16 or within such other designation of the purposes of special or speedy trial sessions with jury in Suffolk as may be made by the chief justice under St. 1928 c. 228.

Said lists shall be composed of cases placed thereon by order of court or marked for trial by a writing given to the clerk not later than the first day of the month preceding. Said lists need not be printed or prepared for distribution except to such extent as may be ordered by the justice having direction of the lists.

Cases may be added to the general list, at the end thereof, at any time by order of court or on the first Monday of any month by written agreement of all parties interested or seven days notice to all parties interested and the filing with the clerk of an affidavit thereof.

Short lists shall be made by the clerk under the direction of the justice having direction of the lists, and shall be mailed to all counsel of record in the cases thereon; but failure to receive such list shall not be a sufficient excuse for ignorance that a case appears thereon.

The lists, assignment of cases, and other administrative matters in civil jury cases in Suffolk shall be subject to the direction, as to the general list, of the justice presiding in the first jury session, and as to the special list, of the justice presiding in the sixth jury session, except as may be otherwise ordered by the chief justice.

Unless the court shall otherwise order, cases on one special list not reached for trial shall take precedence of cases on a subsequent list, but cases on one general list shall not have precedence over, or be carried over to, a succeeding general list.

RULE 64

(Applicable to civil cases without jury in Suffolk)

TRIAL LISTS WITHOUT JURY IN SUFFOLK

In Suffolk there shall be made for every Monday, except in August, a weekly list of cases for trial or hearing on the merits without jury.

Said list shall be composed of cases placed thereon (a) by order of the court, (b) by written agreement of all parties interested given to the clerk not later than four o'clock in the afternoon on the Tuesday preceding the Monday for which the list is made up, or (c) by written notice to all parties interested seven days at least before the Monday for which the list is made up and the filing with the clerk of an affidavit thereof not later than four o'clock in the afternoon on the Tuesday preceding said Monday.

Cases for assessment of damage only shall be classified as such on the list and shall be heard at the opening of the court on each Monday, unless the court otherwise orders. Other cases shall, unless otherwise ordered by the court, be arranged on the list according to the time when placed thereon, precedence being given, however, on written request of any party, to cases within G. L. c. 212 § 16.

The weekly list shall be mailed to all counsel of record in the cases placed thereon; but failure to receive such list shall not be a sufficient excuse for ignorance that a case appears thereon.

Cases on one weekly list not reached for hearing shall take precedence of cases of the same class on a subsequent list, unless the court shall otherwise order.

The list, assignment of cases, and other administrative matters in civil cases without jury in Suffolk shall be subject to the direction of the justice presiding in the first session without jury, except so far as may be otherwise ordered by the chief justice.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 6, 1932

The absolute soundness and merit of the numerically restrictive policy of recent years have been conclusively and strikingly demonstrated in the past year of industrial depression, as our problems today would have been immeasurably intensified and incalculably more serious if the flood of immigration had not been reduced and dammed since 1924 (or possibly since 1921) to a stream over which we have measurable control and possibilities of absorption.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 8, 1932

As the Supreme Court said concisely a few years ago, the various acts of Congress since 1916 evince a progressive policy of restricting immigration; and that the history of this legislation points clearly to the conclusion that one of its great purposes was to protect American labor against the influx of foreign workers. This protection redounds to the benefit of all classes and interests and must be at least maintained, if not strengthened, if our country is to retain its position of leadership and the most envied in the world today, despite the temporary ~~reversals~~ we are now undergoing in common with the rest of the world.

Sikow
A decision of the U. S. Supreme Ct. March 1931 in the case of Philippides v. Day held that alien seamen who have deserted their vessels since the passage of the 1924 law can be deported at any time thereafter, negating the contention all through the courts also the one of last resort that the limitation of 3 yrs. found in act of 1917, within which an alien seaman was deportable, was still in force and effect, despite the general language of the 1924 act, providing that ^{an alien} ~~a seaman~~ who is subsequently to have remained in the country for a longer time than permitted by law and regulations may be deported at any time after entering.

The Supreme Ct. found out that an alien seaman was one of the class of non-immigrants specified in the Act, and that, therefore, one who had entered illegally and remained here more than the 60 day period allowed was subject to deportation WITHOUT LIMIT OF TIME.

Analysis of Statistics of Immigration for Jan. 1932.

There were admitted during Jan. last 2,220 (885 male and 1335 female) immigrants, as compared with 4,091 (1683 male and 2408 female) for the corresponding month of 1931 and 14,767 (7497 male and 7270 female) for the same month in 1930. The percentage decrease was 47.4 for males and 44.6 for females, and since two years ago 88.2 for males and 81.6 for the females.

Europe continues to supply over one half of the newcomers, 1,295 immigrants in January coming from that continent. Italy again led the list with 523, followed by Germany with 126, Poland with 110 and Great Britain with 92. Canada contributed 453 immigrants and Mexico 185. Immigration from all countries dropped 45.7 per cent since a year ago.

Only 10 skilled workers, laborers or servants are now coming where 27 came a year ago. Over $\frac{2}{3}$ of the present day immigrants have no occupation, being women and children. There has been a continued decrease in immigration since 1924, the number of immigrants admitted in January dropping from 33,878 in 1924 to 22,020 in 1932, or 93.5%; skilled laborers declined from 7,451 to 1,850 or 97.5%; laborers from 6,121 to 113 or 98.2%; servants from 1,942 to 56 or 97.1%; and the newcomers listed as having no occupation from 13,482 to 1,553 or 88.5%.

Figures for same month show that resident aliens of the U. S. departed for permanent residence in a foreign country increased from 5,723 in 1924 to 18,550 in 1932 or 31%. Four emigrants are leaving U. S. for every immigrant admitted; the ratio in 1924 was 1 departed to 6 admitted.

Aliens deported in January last numbered 1,537 making a total of 10,771 for the first seven months of the fiscal year or a ~~total of~~ an increase of 746 and 1187 over the corresponding periods of 1931 and 1930.

The number of indigent aliens returned to their native land at our request was 1776 for 7 mos from July thru Jan.

SUNDAY, MAY 15, 1932

Philadelphia

National Conference of International Institutes 645 N. 15th
The meeting was at 3 P.M. It presented case studies typifying "certain Industrial Problems affecting Immigrant Families."
These case studies were given by secretaries of various International Institutes.

Miss Mac Intosh of LAWRENCE, Mass. gave a case study of an Italian family resident in Lawrence.
In the family were no problem of anything but employment, poverty, illness. There was devoted love between husband, wife and children.

Miss — of Flint, Michigan gave the case history of a Mexican family who lost home because of bank failure & depression. Problem complicated by insanity.

Miss Cole of New Haven — discussed closing of Rubber Factory.
Miss Cole of N. Y. City — spoke of problems of Chinese, & Porto Ricans. The Chinese girls are hard to place except in Chinese restaurants.
The placement gives no opportunity for American intermarriage.

Miss Wilson of Bridgeport, spoke of bootleg factories — Hindu Rubber

There was a paper by EWAN CLAGUE — research director of Communi-Council Philadelphia on CYCLES of Prosperity. He had charts showing the variation between immigration and economic distress.
Also charts showing balance of foreign exchange — transmission foreign debts. A good paper — Charts not easy to see.

"The Value of the Volunteer in Governmental Social Work"

by Ruth Taylor - Commissioner of Public Welfare - Westchester County N.Y.
Outlined types of work suitable for volunteers { motor service case work research work office work journalism

Public officials divided as to utility and value of volunteers work. Some officials fear volunteers because officials themselves are ignorant and dread intelligent criticism of their work. Others fear that the volunteers, may, because of lack of political knowledge, embroil the department with powerful politicians. Some officials use volunteers for routine work, others for advisory boards. to use the volunteers there must be careful planning & education of volunteers to hold interest.

P.M. Joint Session with International Institutes. Miss Yeghenean presiding. Mr. Husband spoke on "The Appeal System in the Administration of Immigration Laws." He confined his subject to discussion of the appeal system as it applies to Exclusion cases & did not touch on appeals on WARRANT cases at all. He talked at length & answered questions. His talk was all "old stuff" was slippery & evasive. A longtime resident of U.S. who may be ineligible for admission to U.S. agents by special permission of Sec. of Labor if they can secure visa.

TUESDAY, MAY 17, 1932

9. JOINT SESSION WITH NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTES.

Ed spoke to her - introducing myself as Vice Chairman but apparently Miss Breckinridge presiding: I was not important enough to register as she was barely civil.

1. Adena Miller Rich: INTERNATIONAL, INTERSTATE ASPECTS OF DESERTION AND NON-SUPPORT LEGISLATION

Spoke of many court cases; the weakness of woman's case if she were overseas & husband in U.S.; difficulties caused by personal relationships; by quota laws; extradition; treaties. Lithuania; court action; technique for desertion.

2. Charles Junzer. INTERNATIONAL ASPECTS OF DIVORCE He outlined divorce

historically; noted famous cases - Arherton, Haddock, Haddock. cited specific instances, lump sum settlements etc. favored uniform U.S. divorce law.

3. Read Lewis. PRESENT STATUS OF IMMIGRATION AND NATURALIZATION LEGISLATION

Good summary of legislation in present Congress. 175 bills on which some action has been taken. 3 bills already passed & signed by Hoover.

(1) admission of contestants to Olympic games

(2) removal from exempt contract labor status of alien instrumental ^{marriages}

(3) double appropriation for enforcement of contract labor law.

Bills now prominent but on which action is still pending - suspension of immigration; 90% culm quotas; extension of quotas to Canada & Mexico. The Canadian quota would be 4017. Bill relative to non quota status to husband of American citizens has passed both Senate & House. Non-quota status for parents over 60 passed by house. Bill providing for review of consular decisions. Alien or relative in this country might appeal to Sec. of State. Consul must furnish evidence on which he based decision to exclude. This would make for uniformity of decision & relatives here might show better proof of economic status.

~~No discussion~~ Bill advocates extension C.I. provisions to actors & alien singers in chorus

3. Bill. Several bills give Sec. of Labor discretion to admit deported alien. The bill extending veterans privileges for naturalization has gone to conference 10 additional provisions have been added.

Tuesday May 17, 1932

amendments

- (1) omit c/a for derivative applications
- (2) omit c/a prior to 1906
- (3) re-admit deported aliens
- (4) photographic studies at N.Y. naturaliza.
- (5) statistics of naturalization (objected to by Stafford)

A bill has been reported by House Committee permitting registry aliens between 1921 and 1924.

An important bill affecting alien is Highway Construction Bill for federal work relief. It confines employment to citizens.

A bill provides for Constitutional amendment to exclude aliens from Congressional count.

A bill raises passport fee to $9.

Bills to reduce naturalization fees.

The administrative costs = 36% of fees paid

It is evident that we are at the end of an era of free migration. There will be definite restriction policy. The laws should be cognizance of human urgencies and needs and made with some generosity of spirit. Have in mind these needs:

1. Reunite families
2. Humanize deportation law and provide for independent judicial body
3. Eliminate discrimination of resident alien
4. Facilitate citizenship by lower fees
no rise of educational qualifications

"Patriots" activities.

I.O.A.R. made 24 resolutions including:
Immigration be 90% reduced
Quotas be applied western hemisphere
Exclusion of Filipinos
Alien communists be deported
Deportation time limit abolished Power to deport to any country in the emergency deport all unemployed aliens

oppose independent board of appeal period of naturalization residence extended to 10 yrs.

petitioners must read English with facility

petitioners must be willing to give military service.

alien registration & finger printing aliens excluded from Congressional Count.

luncheon - Bellevue Stratford. Tuesday May 17, 1932 Joint Session with "National Council on Naturalization and Citizenship."

"Naturalization from Choice or Necessity."

Ruth Bernstein - Chairman - very ordinary
Mrs. Brumer presiding - coy and elephantine

Dean Fox - Suggested new ideology for citizenship
"Civis Romanus Sum" now out of date.
Very vague - glittering generalities.

Professor Orlow Very "dynamic" - otherwise noisy. Fat man bursting with eloquence. Many cases to quote. Some pellucid. Other not. Mass of information on restriction of employment & profession because of alienage. Rather old stuff.

Miss Oakley - High light of luncheon. She was just like her articles.

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver of The Temple, Cleveland Ohio
The Crisis in Social Work

He was most denunciatory of capital. Beautiful fiction - Excellent word choice - wonderfully vibrant resonant voice.

Phrases used...

primitive hunger cry - the cry for bread.

they built a city beautiful in the shadow of a threatening volcano.

men are hungry and men must be fed.

social indulgences - social work - "remedial luxuries not social necessities" - famine rations.

lost bitter faith - blasted hopes - destroyed careers. Lost morale - embittered lives.

Every generation has its terror - plague, pestilence, famine end of world. A new terror has come into world at end of 20th century - the terror of unemployment.
permanent scar - fateful menace.

organized charity stands between a discredited economic system and revolution.

Failure is written large on the program of the social worker.
Total economic insolvency.

Unemployment is industry's problem.

Security pseudote that feudalism granted security.

chaos - matter, resisting form.

creativity - joy - mobility.

criteria of civilization

dignity of labor - hard discipline of work.

Beguiled by abnormal prosperity, restrained social sense - things as they are, not things as they ought to be

Spires, domes, minarets are not religion.

Radio, air planes, noisy cities are not civilization

apocalyptic dreams
financial wizardry.

Civilization is essence of secure happy creativity - not wealth, not invention but human values.

Man can master machine world he has created.

Miss Yegheman spoke on "Repatriation".

Expulsion is an open enemy. Repatriation is an enemy in disguise.

(1) it looks good to the alien

(2) it looks good to agency.

(3) it looks good to foreign Communist economic basis in deportation. If we deport five million aliens, 5 million Americans do not thereby get jobs. There is no economic basis to such hope. Deportation makes no more consumers & consumers are needed to get industry going. Deportation as a remedy to unemployment is unreasoned prejudice not based on economic sense.

Magnussen: Ethical concepts of migration equality of opportunity

Nationalism has made immigration an international problem - - no free trade in immigration. Irrevocably international problem. International commission of Group Discussion. "Urgent Needs Today in Field of Migration and Foreign Communities Work."

Discussion Leader: Edith Terry Bremer.

She opened the discussion by listing 10 topics.

1. Expulsion policy of U. S. Dept. of Labor.
2. Social coercion to leave.
3. Administration of relief as it affects alien
4. Terrific upset in diet of racial groups by "famine rations"
5. Losing homes because of economic distress
6. Second generation youth
7. Emigration problems - Amer. born children
8. Adverse American public opinion
9. Agencies of character building type dealing with life in transition and with the imponderables of character development.
10. What are those interested in alien doing about meeting public opinion

Mrs. Rich. then discussed. (1) Expulsion policy of U. S. Dept. of Labor.

Is it a legal aid problem? Should social agency refer to L. A. - Give help in determining facts - supply qualified interpreters - prepare briefs etc.

Detention in jails - following thru after deportation... Encourages of hate."

Legal implications. "Bills of Wrongs."

1. Detention without warrant.
2. Warrant under wrong name
3. No receipt for liberty bond.
4. Photographed for rogues gallery
5. No information given as to right to lawyer
6. Inspector is judge & jury.
7. Inspector not sworn.

"The number of aliens leaving the United States permanently in the last fiscal year was nearly three times that of the new immigrants admitted for permanent residence, according to statement issued today by Sec. Cook.

During fiscal yr. ended June 30, 1932 only 35,576 permanent immigrants were admitted and 103,295 alien residents left the U.S. with the expressed intention of making their homes in other countries. In other words, alien EMIGRATION exceeded immigration by 67,719.

A comparison with corresponding figure for preceding fiscal yr. is exceedingly interesting. In that yr. 97,139 immigrants were admitted as against 61,882 who departed permanently from U.S.

This is the first year in the history of the country when the numbers of aliens permanently departing from the U.S. exceeded the arrivals. During this period 19,426 were formally deported, 2,637 aliens who had become destitute within 3 yrs. after arrival were returned to their native countries by the Department, and 10,750 aliens who were apprehended & found to be subject to deportation were permitted to depart at their own expense without formal deportation.

The department, therefore directly caused 32,813 aliens, here unlawfully in full view into distress, to leave the country.

Visited Lawrence office.
Looked thru office cards.
Filing system:

Cards filed per mo. and then filed in general straight alpha file - no sep.
classifications. File goes back ad infinitum.

Read over cards under C. & under M.

Noted - predominance of Canadian Fr.
On gen. inf cards the legends indicated a considerable amt of work done in specific cases.

One card of work placement showed Constructive wk.

Family welfare problems etc.

The cards contradicted impression

Sept. 9

Phoned Mr. Lovett who called for me in his car. The office looked spic and span. Miss Prych had one client. Miss Bisesti another client. Mr. Lovett also interviewed. Miss Bisesti talked rapidly in Italian. Both she and Miss Prych had pleasant manner with client.

The files were kept by mouth - no consolidation whatever. The records were complete. Well kept and filing good. It appeared to be a rather awkward method.

The furniture is well kept. The office had a distinctly up to date appearance. Well organized - etc.

Comment on bldg. in report.

Mr. L. drove me to Worcester. We lunched at Baueroft. Miss Allaire accompanied.

Saw Kelleher. He seemed in pain.
Comment on his office elsewhere

Took 4.30 bus for Providence
Arrived N. B. 7.45.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1932

Left New Bedford at ^{9.10} ~~8.45~~ for Fall River.

Mr. Hurley and Miss Connor both at office. Miss Connor was sitting at her desk in heavy coat. Complained of cold. She was apparently typing 2214 cards from a list which she had circled. I remembered that we did this in the early days but had long since discarded it as a foolish waste of time. The list from which she was typing was written in pencil, torn and dirty. Perhaps all the untidiness in F.R. is not due to P.J. She was rather doleful. Complained of office conditions - cold, dirt, poor toilet room, no janitor service etc.

The cards are apparently all dictated by P.J. to her at close of day. Why so cumbersome a method. Why can't he type his cards. Cards bore no initial so it was impossible to see who had done interviewing.

The office itself was clean enough but unpeakatly dismal.

P.J. interviewed all applicants. He talked at length to them and to me also. He says the most obvious things in the most lengthy way and is not at all desirous of getting a change in viewpoint.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1932

Lunched at New Bedford hotel and then went to N.B. office. All employees at lunch except Mr. McGunn who was sitting reading at desk in large office.

We went into his own office and talked for 10 x 15 min. until employees returned. In that period no clients came.

The office is obviously over staffed. The rooms are rather too large also. White curtains (sash) seemed utterly inappropriate to me.

After visitation was shown N.B. & called at his home

Took bus to Providence & then Boston.

Reached home at 10.30 or so.

ARMENIANS HIT MRS. THAYER

Say Social Prestige Keeps
Her as Immigration
Division Head

Charged with using her social prestige and political influence to maintain her position as head of the division of immigration and Americanization in the department of education, Mrs. Nathaniel Thayer, prominent social leader of Boston and member of the Republican national committee from Massachusetts, was the object of a bitter verbal attack launched by members of the Armenian Democratic Club of Massachusetts today.

The attack was launched against Mrs. Thayer by John Sanjean of Medford, representing Hagop N. Chopourian, president of the Armenian Democratic Club, at a hearing in the State House before the committee on state administration in an endeavor to abolish the division of which Mrs. Thayer is director.

Mention of her "social and political prestige" was made by Sanjean at the opening of his remarks when he also charged that she was further exercising her powers by compelling the United States department of immigration in Boston to bow to her wishes.

Sanjean declared that Mrs. Thayer's department is a secret service agency in the department of labor, obtaining the confidence of immigrants and later betraying them to the department of labor with the subsequent deportation of many.

A slight mishap occurred when Sanjean's naturalization was questioned.

Mrs. Thayer was ably defended by Dr. Payson B. Smith, commissioner of education, who declared "This attack seems to be directed against a woman who is so well known that she needs no defence before any group of intelligent citizens."

CITY SEEKING NIAGARA WATER

Lockport, N. Y., Begins Battle to Secure Its
"Treaty Rights"

LOCKPORT, N. Y., Jan. 20 (UP)—
Lockport has opened a battle for "treaty water" from the Niagara river.

The city claims it has a right to 275 cubic feet of water a second from the river, to be diverted into 18-Mile creek through the Barge canal. The water was formerly given the city by an agreement between Canada and the federal water power commission.

Mill owners along 18-Mile creek recently sold their rights to water from the Barge canal for approximately $2,000,000. They believed there would be enough overflow to take care of their needs.

The state of New York, however, erected a dam, which prevented any water reaching the creek from the canal. They were forced to buy their water from the city, which, as a result, ran short of water for sewage needs.

The city, until the new demand was made on its water supply, was not particularly concerned about its water. Now, however, it is determined to obtain the water which it claims rightfully belongs to it.

Hovey's

He is not dead—this is but sleep;
Angels rejoice and mortals weep
Over the dormant clay,
While onward, upward to the skies
His glad, triumphant spirit flies
To realms of perfect day.

He is not dead—this is sweet peace,
From toil and care entire release,
His armor now laid down.
The battle fought, the victory won,
His earthly pilgrimage is done,
The cross exchanged for crown.

He is not dead—this is true rest
In yon Elysium of the blest,
Free from all care and pain.
He's reached his Father's house above,
Where all is peace and joy and love,
Our loss his great gain.

Therefore we will not say good-bye,
For love is deathless, cannot die,
The soul immortal lives;
And though stern Fate sets her decree,
There still remains this certainty,
God takes as well as gives.

FEBRUARY 29TH

A day of grace is given us this year
A day made glorious by sun; a night made luminous by stars and moon.

Fleeing seconds run into the hours—
the hours that end so soon.
What are we doing with another day
this year?

To pass away the time, an afternoon of bridge I'll play.
To while away the hours, this eve
I'll dance 'till late.
Eat more, sleep less, to celebrate the gift of this one day.

And were the gift a year would I much wiser be?
I tremble as I ask; and were the gift another life?

At 19, he went to the Spanish war. At the turn of the century, he shipped before the mast and subsequently he spent two years abroad bicycling and selling stereoscopes. Returning to New York, he won a job on the Brooklyn Daily Eagle through a poem he had written about Brooklyn bridge.

From his newspaper desk he came, in 1905, to Harvard, where he worked his way for four years as a special student and received his degree "cum laude" with distinction in history and political science.

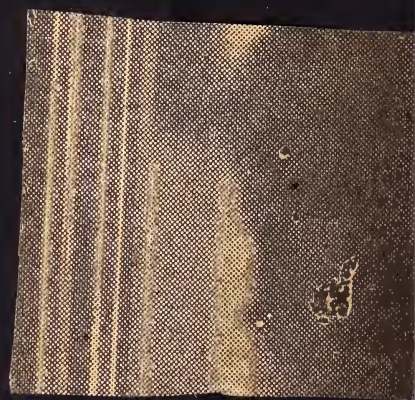

Apart from teaching journalism at the College of the City of New York, Mr. Kaltenborn devoted his life primarily to the work of a newspaper man and is generally known as the writer

Question and Answer

Elizabeth Barrett Browning (1809-1861).

I

Love you seek for, presupposes
Summer heat and sunny glow.
Tell me, do you find moss-roses
Budding, blooming in the snow?
Snow might kill the rose-tree's root—
Shake it quickly from your foot,
Lest it harm you as you go.

II

From the ivy, where it dapples
A gray ruin, stone by stone—
Do you look for grapes or apples,
Or for sad green leaves alone?
Pluck the leaves off, two or three—
Keep them for mortality
When you shall be safe and gone.
